Analysis

Floriday Keys: Chlorophyll north of lower Keys varies around 4-8 ug/L, higher than normal. Chlorophyll of 3-5 ug/L extends past the Marquesas. With expected northerlies continuing for several days, the overall bloom should continue to push west and south, and pulled into the Florida Current.

Very low to low concentrations of Karenia brevis found in the bloom, which is dominated by several diatom species.

--Stumpf